Special Comments by Employee:

.....

I hereby confirm that I am legally entitled to change to the new account mentioned above considering the other commitments given to bank(s). I do accept and agree to receive my medical reimbursements to the primary account (Employee's A/C to which the balance of the salary is being remitted to if there are multiple accounts) mentioned above.

Special Comments by HR Division:

Note: The Bank Account change requested on or before the 7th of a particular month would be effected from the requested month itself. If the request for the Bank Account change is handed over to the HR Division after the 7th of the month, the Salary would be remitted to the new bank account from the next month. Further, please note that the medical insurance claims, which are being processed by the insurer on the same month, will be credited to your existing primary bank account and subsequent medical reimbursements will be credited to your new primary bank account with effective from following month onwards.
